“ Our PATCH member, Sophie will be conducting the photoshoots. Here is a little about her -

Hi, I'm Sophie, wife, mother, creative business owner and Photographer based in Poole. Connecting with other mothers is my calling and my passion. Creating images with emotion and warmth, that encapsulate the connection between you and your children.

Parenting is not always perfect and glossy, my photography is all about capturing you as you are, whichever stage you are currently on, during this wonderful ride of parenthood.

From newborn shoots to maternity imagery or family sessions, there's so much magic in these little glimpses of motherhood, it's a real passion but also a privilege to be part of your story.
