

Year 4 Key Knowledge Fact Sheet – Anglo-Saxons and Vikings

Who were the Anglo - Saxons?

The Anglo-Saxons were a group of farmer-warriors from countries, which today are known as Germany, Denmark and The Netherlands.

They originally came over to help a king's kingdom in Britain but decided to stay and invade in about 400 AD. They settled on fertile land (easy to grow crops) near water sources.

Key Vocabulary

conquer - to take control of a place or people

Scandinavian - an area of Northern Europe with the countries Denmark, Sweden and Norway.
